Mr. Vanstrand and the telegraph informs us, the friends of G. Vliet, had met and carried the resolution in his favor.

GOLD IN AUSTRALIA.—The Australian gold news looks as wonderful as our own California product. Half a million of dollars reached London early in January. The dates from Sydney and Melbourne were to October. With regard to the workings of the mine the most startling results are told, such as one person having obtained 80 pounds weight of gold in four days, and in another spot, eight feet square, and produced 9,000 ounces. Among the latest pieces received at Sydney was one lump of 56 oz. 7 dwt, and another 75 oz. 9 dwt.

A ROW AMONG THE DEMOCRATS.—The contest between the friends of Gen. Cass and Mr. McClellan, has been carried on in a very tangible form, if the telegraphic notices of the Democratic Convention in that city on the 5th last, is correct. After the Convention was organized, it was moved that the friends of Mr. McClellan be invited to express their preferences for Gen. Cass in the election of delegates to the National Convention. A motion was made and carried that the name of Gen. Cass be struck from the list of the Convention. The bill to strike out L. Smith to bridge Milwaukee River. Mr. Vanstrand against Main Liquor Law.

We learn via England that a party of Americans in Egypt not choosing to be insulted by the natives, had quite a few mess with them, in which shots were fired but the war was over.

The Americans were sustained by the authorities.

Washington, Feb. 7.

It is announced that the President will appoint Col. Douglass as Gov. of Utah in place of Brig. Gen. Young.

The health of Mr. Young is rapidly failing, and it is said that Mr. C. will leave for Ashland as soon as he is able.

The Supreme Court has decided that the Wheeling bridge must be raised to the height of 111 feet, and with a span of 300 feet.

Judges Tammey and Davis disagreed.

Mr. C. will not be able to bridge, move a modification of the decree so as to allow a draw and thus remove the obstruction. It is to be hoped that something similar to this will be granted.

The Amazons—More Passengers Saved.
